Fighting Against Child Labour and Child Labour in the Supply Chain Report

Introduction This Modern Slavery Statement is issued by Shoreline Aggregates Inc. and Guy J. Bailey Limited (collectively referred to as "the Companies") pursuant to Canada's Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act (the "Act"). It outlines the actions taken during the 2023 fiscal year to prevent, identify, assess, and mitigate risks of modern slavery, including forced labour and child labour, within our operations and supply chains.

Entity's Structure and Activities Shoreline Aggregates Inc. and Guy J. Bailey Limited are incorporated entities based in Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada. Shoreline operates large scale crushing operations and exports aggregate products internationally from Port Rouse, NL. Guy J. Bailey Limited is engaged in diverse construction projects across Newfoundland and Labrador and supports Shoreline by providing essential services such as load, haul, and dump operations. Together, the Companies employ 115 people.

Supply Chain Overview The supply chain of the Companies predominantly involves suppliers from Canada and the United States. In 2023, our top 10 suppliers constituted 88% of our total supply chain expenditures. These suppliers are primarily involved in providing:

- Fuel and energy
- Maintenance, repair operations and production consumables
- Contracted equipment and labour services
- Transportation and logistics
- Drilling and blasting
- Mobile and stationary equipment for crushing, ship loading, and quarrying

Due Diligence and Risk Assessment To address risks associated with modern slavery, the Companies have implemented a due diligence framework that includes:

Internal Supplier Assessments: Assessments of our top suppliers for risks related to human rights abuses, including forced and child labour. The internal assessment included reviewing geographical mapping of our suppliers'. Our findings showed that in 2023, 37% of our total Tier 1 spending was in Canada and 63% in the United States. In our assessment, we noted that none of our Tier 1 supplier spending was from Countries that globalmarch.org list as top countries vulnerable to economic and labour exploitation. Additionally, our team reviewed World Visions reports on the top risky products at risk for child Labour, out of our top 10 suppliers, no purchases fell into those categories.

Risk Management For the top three spending categories identified as having the highest expenditure but low risk from a Tier 1 perspective, the following specific actions have been taken:

- Transportation and Logistics: Implementation of a monitoring system to track the labour conditions of those involved in our logistics operations, especially focusing on third-party logistics providers.

- Contracted Equipment and Labour Services: Rigorous vetting processes for labour providers, including verifying the labour practices of subcontractors and agencies.
- Fuel and Energy: Engaging with suppliers to ensure compliance with environmental and social governance (ESG) criteria, which include Labour rights protections.
